

Ford Visits With Nixon In Hospital

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP) — Former President Richard M. Nixon's condition appears to be improved and he is to be visited today by President Ford. Pat Nixon said, "I can't think of anything that would do him more good."

Nixon's doctors said late Thursday that he probably will remain on the critical list for 24 to 72 hours. They said, "There are dangers lurking in the background."

The doctors said the internal bleeding which nearly cost the former president his life had apparently stopped. New transfusions were ordered to replace blood lost after surgery last Tuesday for his phlebitis condition.

Ford arrived in Los Angeles for a political fund-raising dinner Thursday evening and it was learned that he would visit Nixon at Long Beach Memorial Hospital Medical Center early today.

Presidential Press Secretary Ron Nessen said Ford talked to Mrs. Nixon by telephone Thursday and asked whether it would be helpful if he went to see Nixon.

"I can't think of anything that would do him more good," was Mrs. Nixon's reply, Nessen said.

The 61-year-old former president could have died from the internal bleeding that sent him into shock after the operation Tuesday, "if proper measures had not been taken," Dr. John C. Lungren told a news conference Thursday.

Lungren, Nixon's personal physician, and two surgeons who operated on the former president did not specify when the apparent let-up in bleeding took place. The doctors said they would monitor Nixon's condition to determine whether the bleeding had stopped completely.

Lungren said Nixon's vital signs had "pretty much returned to normal." He did not elaborate on his comment about dangers lurking in the background.

Hens Hold Line Against Inflation

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)— Ohio's hens are holding the line against inflation, an Associated Press supermarket survey showed today.

A dozen medium white eggs sold on an average in 10 cities for 78 cents compared to the 77 cents a similar dozen eggs brought just one year ago.

That's an increase of 1.3 per cent — small potatoes to the 165 per cent increase in the cost of five pounds of granulated sugar, or peanut butter, or detergent or chocolate cookies.

Sugar's spectacular price explosion reached 167 per cent in the last 12 months. Five pounds sold on the average in the AP survey for $2.14 today, compared to 80 cents one year back.

The skyrocketing cost of sugar, along with sharply higher flour costs, contributed heavily to a 46 per cent hike in the cost of a 14½-ounce package of chocolate cookies. Today's price was 98 cents compared to 67 cents a year ago.

The 12-month increase in the prices of peanut butter and detergent was only slightly less shocking.

Twelve ounces of peanut butter, which cost 46 cents a year ago, sold today for 63 cents on the average, an increase of 37 per cent.

Detergent shot up 31 per cent in the year, from 88 cents last Nov. 1 to $1.15 today for a 49-ounce package.

Cities surveyed included Athens, Cincinnati, Cleveland, Columbus, Conneaut, Lima, Massillon, Portsmouth, Toledo, Van Wert and Youngstown.

The survey marketbasket contained 16 items—hamburger, chuck roast, whole chicken, center cut pork chops, milk, margarine, peanut butter, eggs, toilet tissue, bread, sugar, potatoes, coffee, detergent, chocolate chip cookies and frozen orange juice.

There was at least some temporary good news for food shoppers. The cost of all 16 items edged downward compared to a month ago—$17.49 to $17.86, a drop of 2.1 per cent.

Eight of the 10 cities showed the dip, which ranged from 1 to 3.5 per cent.

Sharp declines in some meat cuts and a modest cut in egg prices brought the price drop. Center cut pork chops dropped 10 per cent and chuck roast 8 per cent, while hamburger and fryer chickens leveled off at the price of the previous month.

As usual, the big cities didn't always show the highest prices. Most expensive was Portsmouth with a total price of $19.39 for the marketbasket, compared to $16.41 for Toledo, $17.01 for Cleveland, $17.36 for Columbus.

Cheapest was Massillon with a price of $15.63.

Inflation Program Falters

WASHINGTON (AP) — Three weeks after it was proposed, President Ford's anti-inflation program is bogged down in public controversy over whether its costs will outweigh its benefits.

Although Ford said his program was a "grand design" that should be considered as a package, it appears the proposals requiring congressional approval will be voted on only in bits and pieces, if at all.

The only one of Ford's major proposals to have cleared Congress so far is his program to make more than $7 billion available to the housing industry to help lower home mortgage interest rates.

Two other major features of the Ford package, budget reductions and a 5 per cent surtax on a single taxpayer's income over $7,500 or family income above $15,000, have gone nowhere. Both have aroused fears in Congress they would worsen the nation's current economic decline.

Ford's chief economic spokesman, Treasury Secretary William E. Simon, has changed his tactics slightly in defending the Ford program. He's been saying in recent speeches that the program will deal with the economic downturn at the same time it works to restrain rampant inflation.

And in a speech to the National Press Club Thursday, Simon even said the program "will preserve the free enterprise system that I believe is essential to our future growth."

But while the administration still is pushing hard publicly, some key administration economists believe there won't be any surtax unless the income level is raised, possibly as high as $25,000 for a family.

But even a seemingly non-controversial Ford proposal to issue special citations to business and labor unions that show restraint in wage and price behavior has run into trouble.

Arch Booth, president of the U.S. Chamber of Commerce, refused recently to support the plan and walked out of a meeting of the President's Citizens' Action Committee to Fight Inflation, of which he is a member.

What's more, some administration economists concede there are contradictions in some aspects of the program, including suggestions by Ford that the government might consider issuing special so-called WIN bonds that would bear a higher interest rate than savings bonds.

Such a bond, they say, likely would attract more funds away from the savings and loan associations that support the housing industry.

One Treasury economist, who did not want to be quoted by name, also said it was unfortunate that some of Ford's remarks have been interpreted as encouraging Americans to spend less and save more, since reduced spending on top of already declining retail sales could only hurt the economy more.

But in his Oct. 14 Kansas City speech, Ford did urge that Americans balance their family budgets, postpone unnecessary borrowing, and save as much money as they can — all steps that could lead to lower consumer spending.

Other major Ford proposals and their status are as follows:

ROUNDTOWN

ACCORDING to weather statisticians, Thursday's 80-degree temperature was not a record for that date. But it was the recorded high during October 1974.

Weather

Considerable cloudiness today, with a chance of showers, high, mid 70s. Clear and cooler tonight, low, low 50s. Partly cloudy and cooler Saturday, high, low 60s. Probability of precipitation, 40 per cent today and 10 per cent tonight and tomorrow. Temperatures Thursday were: high, 80; low, 55.

—His proposal for Congress to set a $300-billion budget ceiling for the 1975 fiscal year has passed the House, but not the Senate.

—The list of $5 billion in budget cuts he has been promising to send to Congress since he took office now is scheduled to go to Capitol Hill after the Nov. 5 elections.

—A public service employment program to spend up to $2.3 billion on increased jobs and unemployment benefits to confront rising unemployment has not been acted on.

—The likewise has been no action on his proposals for a 5 per cent surtax on corporate income or on a plan to encourage new business investments by raising the investment tax credit to 10 per cent.

—There has been no action on a proposal to allow tax deductions for dividends paid on preferred stock, which is a move aimed at helping public utilities raise capital.

—A modest tax relief program for low-income groups, which is supported by Ford and which already was under consideration by the House Ways and Means Committee as part of a tax reform package, may be reported out of committee after the election.

—On the voluntary level, the citizens' committee that is helping with this program expects to begin sending the first of an expected 140,000 so-called WIN buttons by the middle of next week to persons who have mailed in pledges to help to control inflation.

In addition to these, Simon indicated in a television interview Thursday night that if the President's plan to reduce oil imports by one million barrels a day by the end of next year through voluntary efforts doesn't begin to show results within the next three months, then some mandatory reductions may be imposed.

Watergate Lawyers Eye Nixon

WASHINGTON (AP) — Lawyers in the Watergate cover-up trial are watching medical reports on Richard M. Nixon because the former president's health may decide whether he will appear as a witness.

With Jeb Stuart Magruder scheduled to take the stand for his third day of cross-examination today, lawyers familiar with the case say there already have been serious discussions about moving the trial to California for Nixon's testimony if he is too ill to travel to Washington.

Another possibility is a direct television link from California to U.S. District Judge John J. Sirica's courtroom in Washington. Nixon would testify either from a hospital bed or his San Clemente, Calif., estate.

Lawyers at the trial emphasized, however, that Sirica has given no indication how he might get Nixon's testimony before the jury if, by the time he is called, the former president's health has not improved significantly. Nixon, operated on Tuesday night for phlebitis, remained in critical condition Thursday night from complications. Doctors said, however, he was improving.

Nixon has been subpoenaed by defendant John D. Ehrlichman, whose lawyers say Nixon's account is vital if their client is to receive a fair trial.

Sirica already has indicated he will appoint a team of three doctors to examine Nixon. If they recommend that Nixon not be required to testify, defense sources indicate Ehrlichman is likely to renew his requests for a separate trial, pending an improvement in Nixon's health.

Another complication still unknown to the jury is the impact of the illness of David Bress, the attorney for defendant Robert C. Mardian. Bress reportedly was examined at a hospital Thursday and one defense lawyer said he "has a serious problem."

The same defense lawyer said Bress' assistant, Thomas C. Green, has requested that Sirica order a separate trial for Mardian on grounds that Bress' illness will keep the former assistant attorney general from receiving the full legal representation to which he is entitled.

Because of a gag order imposed by Sirica on defense and prosecution lawyers, none of them would describe Bress' illness in detail or confirm publicly that a separate trial had been requested.

One lawyer said the question of Mardian's possible separate trial probably would be decided by Sirica today or Friday.

Magruder described on Thursday how defendant John N. Mitchell gave his reluctant and unenthusiastic approval to a $250,000 intelligence plan that ended up as the Watergate burglary.

Mitchell's lawyer, Plato Cacheris, sought to demonstrate that Magruder and former White House Counsel John W. Dean III devised the Watergate cover-up and in the end sought to save themselves from going to jail.

Magruder willingly admitted to searching out a way to fabricate a believable story to make a Watergate grand jury believe that no one in authority at Nixon's re-election committee or the White House had given advance approval to the break-in at Democratic National Committee headquarters.

Butz, Simon In Discord Over Prices

WASHINGTON (AP) — Agriculture Secretary Earl L. Butz has opened a food conference by telling participants not "to flail the middleman," while a fellow Cabinet officer was announcing administration intent to probe that segment of the food industry.

Butz issued his plea as he opened the conference on food productivity, costs and prices Thursday. Elsewhere in Washington, however, Treasury Secretary William E. Simon was saying the administration was ready to battle the food industry middleman, including refiners, canners and the packaging and transportation industries.

"With times as difficult as they are, we cannot permit one segment of the economy to reap unjust enrichment at the expense of everyone else," Simon said in discussing the administration plans at a National Press Club luncheon.

Simon said he was concerned that farm prices have been falling generally while consumer food prices have been increasing. He said the administration's efforts will begin with the sugar industry and that he had ordered public hearings on sugar prices by the Council of Wage and Price Stability.

Simon said that all facets of the sugar industry will be looked at, including the price of raw sugar as it compares with the refined product, and he said:

"When we get all the facts, we will take whatever action is warranted."

Storms Rage Over Texas With Floods

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Heavy thunderstorms raged through Texas today, and the resulting floods killed one person and drove hundreds of families from their homes.

At Killeen, Tex., where seven inches of rain turned Nolan Creek into a raging torrent, Army Lt. Charles R. May was drowned when he was swept from a bridge.

Six inches fell in two hours at Port Lavaca, Tex., stalling traffic in the flooded streets.

Elsewhere, cloudy skies stretched from the Northern Rockies to the New England states and rain fell over much of the area.

Over the Northern Rockies and Plains, rain turned to snow at some spots where temperatures dropped below freezing. Lewistown, Mont., reported two inches of snow on the ground, while Craig, Colo. reported one inch.

Dense fog blanketed southwest Alabama and northwest Florida, and travelers' advisories were issued. Early morning fog also covered parts of the Northeast.

West of the Rockies, clouds and scattered showers dominated the weather picture, while clear skies extended from the Southern Rockies and Plains into Kansas and Missouri. The mid and lower Atlantic Coast states and the Tennessee Valley also reported cloudless skies.

Early morning temperatures ranged from 27 at Alamogosa, Colo., to 77 at the Naval Air Station at Corpus Christi, Tex.

Jaycee Parade Highlights City's Trick, Treat Night

It was Trick or Treat night in Circleville Thursday, and, as usual, the residents did the treating and got most of the tricking.

Hundreds of little masked figures roamed the streets in their door-to-door search for candy and other goodies. And there was the annual Circleville Jaycee's Halloween Parade, costume judging, and party.

HALLOWEEN QUEEN—Queen of the Jaycee's Halloween Parade Thursday night was Circleville Mayor Frank Barnhill, making it truly Trick or Treat night in the city.

The parade was led by Circleville Mayor Frank Barnhill, dressed as a woman, and Police Chief Robert Temple as a country bumpkin.

Bands included both the high school and junior high of Circleville and there were several marching units.

Jim Reese, president of the Jaycees, handled the costume judging in the YMCA following the parade. Donuts for the party were donated by Lindsey's Bakery and soft drinks by the Scioto Coca-Cola Bottling Co.

Faye Cupp, dressed as Dracula, was the grand champion in the Ugliest category; Edward and Shawn Redd as Grandfather Time and The New Year were the most original; and Trisha Manbeavers as a dancing gypsy was the prettiest.

Age group winners were:

AGES 0-7
Most Original — 1. Doug Cook and Lesley Wilson; 2. Matt Hartsaugh; 3. Tolan Harber.

Prettiest — 1. H. Gilmore; 2. L. Elliott; 3. M. Caudill.

UGLIEST — 1. David Liggett, 2. Tristan Manbeavers; 3. Bernie Stonerock.

AGES 8-15
Most Original — 1. Lisa Arledge; 2. Mike Williams; 3. Martha Nelson.

Prettiest — 1. Trisha Manbeavers; 2. Jerry Hickey; 3. Barry Anderson.

UGLIEST — 1. Erinne Liggett; 2. Eric Liggett; 3. Scott Hamman.

OVER 16
Most Original — 1. Edward and Shawn Redd, Columbus; 2. Donald Barton; 3. Mary Nelson.

Prettiest — 1. Mabel Pearson; 2.

Opal Stevenson; 3. Mrs. Carl Gulick. Ugliest — 1. Faye Cupp; 2. Barbara Bush; 3. Sue Manbeavers.

Besides the usual amount of paraffin on windows, pumpkins smashed in the streets and on sidewalks, gardens trampled, and leaves scattered, there were specific cases of vandalism reported to city police and the Sheriff's Department.

In Ashville, vandals rolled a car onto its top in the middle of a street, lined some streets with trash cans, and tore down lights, according to deputies.

Two stop signs were torn down on the Circleville-Winchester Rd. and numerous mail boxes were damaged along the Walnut Creek Pike.

Rosie Scott, 316 Watt St., complained to city police that vandals turned over a red flower pot in her yard Thursday night, cracking the base of the pot.

James Moorehead, 475 N. Court St., reported that his daughter's 10-speed Western Flyer bike, valued at $95, was taken from his garage.

Donald Ward, 318 Watt St., said that vandals tore the top from his 1969 Chevrolet and knocked over trash cans in the alley behind his house.

And vandals overturned an outhouse on N. Scioto St.

On a more somber note, Ronald Smith, 966 S. Washington St., found staples in a candy bar his children had collected in their trick or treating.

Luckily, he found the staples before the kids had a chance to bite into the candy.

Police said the candy, a Three Musketers bar, was probably collected on Clinton or S. Washington Sts.

GRAND CHAMPIONS—Judged grand champions in the three categories of the Circleville Jaycee's annual Halloween Contest and Parade are from the left, Faye Cupp, 158 Hayward Ave., ugliest; Trisha Manbeavers, 19 Logan St., Ashville, prettiest; and Edward and Shawn Redd, 651 Stewart Ave., Columbus, most original.

Aspirin Warning

If anything good has come out of the youthful drug culture of the last decade and a half it is awareness by adults that not all panaceas can be found in a pill. The penchant for drugs of many types by many Americans by now is well chronicled.

The difference between many adult and younger drug takers has to do with motive rather than substance. It is not kicks as much as self-prescription for aches and pains—real or imaginary—which causes a steady drain of the aspirin bottle and similar compounds.

Medicine is taking a new look at some of these household remedies and coming up with some new doubts. At the fifth World Congress of Gastroenterology, held in Mexico City, several world specialists in intestinal ailments spoke out against indiscriminate use of large quantities of aspirin, undoubtedly the most commonly used drug.

Dr. Morton Grossman of the University of California said one-third of patients suffering from gastric ulcers are chronic aspirin users. From Dr. Atanas Maleev, director of the Bulgarian Academy of Medicine, came this warning:

"We have observed that 50 per cent of the bleeding ulcers, ulcerated colitis and serious lesions in the intestines seem to be directly related to patients who abuse the use of aspirin."

From doctors in Scotland, Venezuela and other countries came similar warnings. Not that the use of aspirin should be discontinued. Simply that its chronic and indiscriminate use can bring problems perhaps more serious than those for which it is taken.

We'd Sooner Forget

ON THE LINE
By BOB CONSIDINE

NEW YORK — Some recent quotes and unquotes:

President Gerald Ford last week took a paid furlough from the Presidency of all the people and campaigned in behalf of Republican Party candidates in the upcoming elections. This exercise was nature's traditional call to partisan politicians, of course. But in Oklahoma he laid it on a bit thick. He said, in effect, that if the nation votes mainly for Democrats, in the wake of the rotten Republican record on Watergate, the economy and the several detentes will be imperiled.

There hasn't been that much (deleted) spread over the body politic since President Richard Nixon's promise, months after the fact, that he'd "look into" those reckless journalistic reports that there might have been something wrong committed during the Watergate break-in and there-after.

While we have our moments of disfavor, we (apparently the chauvinist pig editors) reserve our right to be fair to those women of the National Organization for Women and yet not be run over by their zeal to the extent that we lose our sense of humor.

"We are pleased to offer then a prayer in the interest of fairness to those most delightful persons. Written by Irene Davall, National Coordinator of the Feminist Party at the suggestion of Ramona Barth, its National Chaplain, and with permission of Flo Kennedy, its Founder, is Ms. Irene's parody on the 'Prayer for Animals' in our 1973 Almanac:

"Hear our humble prayer for our friends the women, especially for women who are suffering; for all that are overworked, underpaid and treated inequitably; for all wistful women in captivity that beat against their bars; for all that are in pain or dying of boredom in the cages of suburban houses. Make us ourselves to be true friends to women and so to share the blessing of the merciful..."

Any divorced man who repeats that prayer three times gets six months off for good conduct on his alimony jail sentence.

Denis L. Johnson, the famous marketing specialist, said recently in a lecture at the University of Dallas:

"A Boeing 747 sits alone and empty on a desert in Arizona. A new dormitory that has never been occupied sits vacant on a campus in Wisconsin. Highly trained, unionized pilots receive annual salaries in excess of $50,000. Faculty members with academic freedom, tenure and unionization command salaries of $20,000 to $40,000. Inflation and skyrocketing fuel costs produce high operating costs. Inflation and long-term debt increase plant operating costs. Ticket price increases for airline passengers. Tuition and education costs increase dramatically for students. Passenger complaints increase for the airlines. Student dissatisfaction and attrition rates rise in colleges. These are but just a few of many comparisons one could make between the airline and education enterprises. There are successes and failures in both industries that suggest that dealing effectively with these problems is a double management function."

Easy as cleaning up Sodom and Gomorrah. Right?

Take a deep breath and read aloud the first paragraph of Noel Mostert's "Supership" (Knopf), a story about the monstrous new oil tankers and the characters who operate them. All set? Stomach sucked in? Seat-belt fastened? Okay:

"On a warm but overcast morning of a recent June the S.S. Ardshiel, a British supertanker with a deadweight of 214,085 tons, a length of 1,063 feet, a 157-foot 9-inch beam, a capacity for some 206,000 tons of crude oil, and flying the house colors of the Peninsular and Oriental Steam Navigation Company, betterknown simply as the P & O Line, was the biggest object in sight in the Gironde estuary, through which pours the sea trade of Bordeaux and south-east France."

If you don't mind, Noel baby, leave me out of this. Whatever happened to the United Press style manual you once had to study? Personally, I was a student of the International News Service manual, which stressed simple declarative sentences as divine dogma. I'm a "Jesus wept" grammarian. That's the finest and most meaningful sentence ever written. But, of course, Jesus never saw a supertanker.

You may have missed this in "Farmers' Almanac the Year of our Lord, 1975, Being third after bissextile, or leap year, and until the Fourth of July, the 199th Year of the Independence of the United States." No wonder if you did miss it. It is buried halfway into the ancient pamphlet which annually alerts us as to when to plant catnip and watch out of July hailstorms. Goes this way:

"Women who are battling for equal rights somehow get up tight about many things that a short time ago they would have taken in stride.

Dear Editor:

In all of the opinion polls the crisis of everyday living, the escalating costs, rank as the most serious problem. This is now so for all sections of the population.

The realization that the crisis of everyday living—the shortages, the inflation—is not a momentary passing phase, is beginning to make waves in mass consciousness. There is a rising mass anger. There is an accumulation of explosive bottled-up frustrations, not quite knowing where to strike first.

Our economy is a complex mixture of the continuing high rate of leaking inflation, blended with stagnation and parts of a recession. It is a blending of five parts inflation, three parts economic stagnation and two parts recession. That is potentially an explosive mixture.

But, as we have said in the past, inflation is becoming more and more an institutionalized process. It has become an added feature to every economic transaction.

In a sense, the pressures toward inflation and the pressures toward recession have become a new contradiction for state monopoly capitalism. It has added a new element to the production cycle. The state takes measures to keep the growth rate alive and to minimize recession. But these very measures fire the rate of inflation. As it is the case with detente, the Ford Administration again tries to ride the two economic horses, as his predecessor, Mr. Nixon. It takes measures geared to slow down inflation; and it takes measures that promote inflation. But these measures have a definite class basis.

The measures that are geared to slow down inflation are measures the wage earners and the people have to pay for through a lower standard of living. The measures that fire up inflation are geared to increase corporate profits. And they do. So the contradictory measures run clearly along dividing the people against those who have and those who have not, the basis of upheaval. The capitalistic economists try to make it appear that the people must choose either a continuing inflation or a recession. As far as present-day capitalism is concerned it doesn't even give that choice. We have both inflation and development toward recession. The wage earners must reject all of these alternatives.

Such alternatives are motivated by maximum corporate profits. They are both geared to making the people pay for the crisis of the unqualified present leadership. The Republican and Democratic candidates coming up for election failed in their campaign to raise their fingers against the oil giants, or to tell the truth to the American people. These candidates are good only at attacking each other—Democrats vs. Republicans. Not one of these politicians spoke on behalf of the working people, the small businessmen, the hard hit farmers or the elders.

Dear Editor:

It really seems a shame that in our affluent society today children must attend a school where they are limited to the number of times in a day they can use rest rooms, or lunch hours are delayed because of faulty sewage systems. Or that children cannot have the same opportunity to learn as much as you or I did in school because of limited hours that can be given them.

It shocks me to attend P.T.O. meetings and hear that we barely meet state requirements for time required in class.

I appeal to you voters of Teays Valley School District to vote for the school bond issue to put up a middle school so that these future law makers and young adults will have more knowledge to rule our country more wisely than appears to be prevailing in the present.

Place your small grievances against teachers, principals, school superintendents and school board members in proper perspective - handle them when the time comes. Voters the time is now to pass the bond issue for the school. See you at the polls.

Thank you,

"Well, Betty's husband fixed THEIR leaking faucet and HE doesn't belong to the plumbers' union."

Speaking Of Your Health

by Lester L. Coleman, M.D.

Our son fractured his leg above the knee. He is in a cast, and will remain in it for a long time. When it finally heals, will his leg be shortened or affected in any way?

Mrs. J.R.V., Va.

Dear Mrs. V.:
Uncomplicated "simple" fractures heal remarkably well. A "simple" fracture does not necessarily mean an "unimportant" one.
The distinction between a "simple" fracture and a "compound" fracture is technical. A simple fracture is one in which fragments of bone have not broken through the skin.
A compound fracture is one in which the fragments of bone have broken through the outer skin.
In both types of fractures, simple and compound, the healing process depends on the amount of damage done to the muscles and the surrounding tissues and on how well the bone edges can be brought together.

In some instances, fractures heal very slowly ("delayed" healing). In other cases, there may be non-union of bone, which requires surgical intervention.
Fractures of the thigh bone, or femur, such as your son has, usually heal well and rarely interfere with normal function.

Only occasionally is the length of the limb affected. This may occur if a fracture involves the ends of bone where a small area, the epiphysis, is located. This anatomical area is responsible for the growth of long bone.

After your son's cast is removed, the muscles will be thinner and seem to be "wasted." This is known as the "atrophy of disuse." It will quickly

Big Top Alive In Great Britain

LONDON (AP) — The bottom has not fallen out of the Big Top in Britain.
The 1974 Circus Directory of the British Isles, issued with the circus magazine "King Polo," lists no fewer than 40 troupes operating in Britain. They range from the mighty traveling circuses to one which is worked by just two people.
The magazine says it hopes that the directory "will help in persuading local authority councillors and officials, and anyone else with an interest, that the circus is very much alive and kicking."

What is a "horseshoe kidney"?
Mr. T.A., Nev.

Dear Mr. A.:
This unusual condition occurs in about one out of 500 people. It is a birth abnormality that is formed when the two kidneys fuse into one.
In the absence of any infection, it does not affect the health or the longevity of those born with it.

Derby News

MRS. GEORGIA SWEET, 896-2462

There will be a special retreat for adults of the Derby United Methodist Church on the weekend of Nov. 1-3. It will include Bible study on the book of Romans, and plenty of time for fellowship and fun at Otterbein.

With the music ministry at the Derby United Methodist Church the cherub choir meets Mondays at 3:30 p.m. (age four through grade two.)

The junior choir meets Mondays at 2:30 p.m. (grades 3-6.) The youth choir meets on Wednesdays at 6:30 p.m. (grades 7-12). The senior choir meets Wednesdays at 7:30 p.m.

The Derby Garden Club held a guest night for their Oct. 28 meeting. Mrs. Shirley McPherson spoke on care and growing of perennials. Members each brought a door swag of dried materials they had made which were judged by the other members and prizes were awarded.

The Derby United Methodist Church Women's Circles are sponsoring a club party luncheon given by Big Bear stores on Nov. 11 at 11:45 a.m. at the Derby Church. Tickets are available from any church member or contact Mrs. Josephine Cox, 869-2404, or Mrs. Martha Jo Liff, 877-4992.

This community extends its sympathy to Thurman Spradlin and family on the death of his brother Crate Spradlin, 72, who passed away on Sunday in Springfield Community Hospital.

Condolences also go to the family of Joseph A. McCoy, 63, of near Derby who passed away in Fayette Memorial Hospital on Sunday.

Congratulations go to the Herman Webbs (formerly of Derby) who became proud parents of a son, Nathaniel Christian, recently. He is their fifth child.

Church Briefs

The sermon topic selected for Sunday morning at First Presbyterian Church is "In Spite Of It's Weaknesses." A carry-in stewardship dinner is planned for 6:30 p.m. Sunday at the church.

The sermon theme for both Sunday morning services at Community United Methodist Church is "On The Fear Of Death."

First Church of Christ in Christian Union will conclude its revival Sunday in both the morning and evening services.

"Help Wanted. All Tools Provided" is the sermon topic for Sunday morning at Calvary United Methodist Church.

Every Member Canvass Sunday will be observed this week at St. Philip's Episcopal Church. Canvassers will call at the home of parishioners in the afternoon.

A Spiritual Restoration Crusade will be held Sunday through Nov. 10, at Good Shepherd United Methodist Church, 310 E. Town St. Dr. Lon Woodrum, minister, evangelist, lecturer, columnist and Bible teacher, will be guest speaker for the 7:30 p.m. daily services and 9:30 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. Sundays. Local church and community singing and other music talent will be part of the services. Nursery care will be provided.

"The Uniqueness Of Jesus" is the sermon theme selected for Sunday morning at Trinity Lutheran Church.

Sunday is Kick-Off Day at First Baptist Church for a month of stewardship emphasis. The sermon topic is "The Fullness Of Stewardship." RA Boys will sponsor a Father and Son banquet 6:30 p.m. Thursday at the church.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Delay, Dr. and Mrs. Rex Buller, and Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Onewehr enjoyed supper at the Terrace Lounge in Washington C.H. Saturday evening. The occasion honored Mrs. Delay on her birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Andy Onewehr of Westerville were weekend guests of her mother, Mrs. Mae Delay. They, along with Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Onewehr, Beth and Clyde, were Sunday dinner guests of Mae Delay.

Mr. and Mrs. Tim Herriott of Columbus the former Joyce McPherson, are proud parents of a son.

Mrs. Marilu Wilson has reopened her beauty shop in Derby.

I'm happy to report that Brad Hosler is now home from the hospital, doing fine, and is expected to return to school this week.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Harry Vincent on their 54th wedding anniversary Oct. 28th.

A Missionary convention is being planned at the Southwest Community Church of the Nazarene for Nov. 15-17. Dr. Jarrell Garsee, Mt. Vernon Nazarene College Chaplin and Psychology teacher will be the speaker. Dr. Garsee served as missionary to Samoa for several years.

On Oct. 28 a large group from the Southwest Community Church of the Nazarene attended a Sunday School Workers Banquet at the Sveden House Smorgasbord in Columbus. The Reverend Jim Calvert, Pastor of the Bellows Avenue Church of the Nazarene was the guest speaker.

We are glad to hear that Mrs. Pat (Ruth) Fast is on the mend from a recent fall. At this writing she doesn't have complete use of one arm yet.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gillespie and son Kenneth visited with Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Clem and family of Columbus on Tuesday.

Karl Spires has entered school in Nashville, Tenn. For his friends wishing to write to him his address is as follows: Nashville Auto and Diesel College, 952 Strouse Ave., Nashville, Tenn., 37206.

Mrs. Gary Wardell and children Mike and Debbie were guests at a birthday supper at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Musselman Sr. of Lambert Road, near Grove City on Oct. 23. The occasion celebrated daughter Tonya Jo's 12th birthday. Also present were daughter Karen Baker, husband Mark and one-year-old son Markie, and son Tom and his wife Sue.

The annual Pickaway county rabies clinic will be held again this year. In this area it will be held at the Township House in Derby on Nov. 3. The charge per animal is $1 and it is preferred the animals be over two months old. Dr. Rex Buller is the veterinarian in charge.

Mrs. Shirley Wardell entered Mt. Carmel Medical center on Wednesday this week, and is scheduled for surgery on Thursday. All our best wishes go with her.

Legion Auxiliary Votes Revision Of Constitution

Discussion of business at the Monday evening meeting of Unit 134 American Legion Auxiliary was supervised by Eleanor Moss, president.

Maggie Mavis, acting chaplain, opened the session with prayer. Betty Woods read a thank-you letter from the Chapel of Four Chaplains for the unit's contribution of money and a letter of appreciation from Mrs. Delno Oldaker, 7th District president, to those attending a reception for her.

Mrs. Woods urged members to pay their dues and reported that Mrs. Gertrude Webbe, life member, sent a contribution to be used to purchase items for the annual Christmas Party for a ward at Chillicothe Veterans Hospital.

Mary Stephens, VA and R chairman told of the October visit to the VA Hospital. Roseann Stinson told of clothing distributed to veterans and dependents in the past several months. Magdalene Fee told of cards sent to ill and shut-in persons and Betty Sabine reported the progress of the candy sale now being conducted. Proposed amendments to the unit constitution and by-laws were read for the second time and accepted by vote.

The local unit will host the 7th District Roundtable in the Post Home on Nov. 10th. Registration will begin at 1 p.m. and the meeting at 2. Members planning to attend are asked to bring a salad.

Miss Mavis closed the meeting with prayer and following retirement of colors, members were invited to the refreshment table by Betty Sabine and Miss Mavis.

Youth Fellowship Halloween Party Held Sunday

The annual Halloween Party for Youth Fellowships of the Stoutsville Charge was held Sunday in the social rooms of St. John United Methodist Church. Seasonal decorations accentuated the Halloween theme.

Costumes were judged with winners: Will Waidelich, dressed as the funniest; Wray Jean Beavers, wearing the most original and Janice and Julia Doner, masquerading as the ugliest pair.

Games consisted of a husking bee, apple bob, doughnut eating contest, balloon game, black magic and the mystery knot string game. Refreshments of cookies, cupcakes, doughnuts and cider were enjoyed by the following guests and members: Barbara and Brenda Bolender, Wray Jean and Lori Beavers, Will and Matt Waidelich, Sherri and Lisa Mock, Shelly Goldsberry, Sandy and Bob Marshall, Janice and Julia Doner, Nanci and Jackie Cave, Dean and Mark LaRue, Herb McGrath, and the YF leaders, Sondra Warner and Kathleen LaRue.

GFWC Conference Attended By Mrs. Sterling Poling

Mrs. Sterling Poling has returned from the Great Lakes Conference of the General Federation of Women's Clubs which was held in Indianapolis, Ind., beginning last Sunday. Mrs. Poling gave the invocation prior to the Red, White and Blue Banquet which was held on Sunday evening with Mrs. Carroll E. Miller, president of the General Federation as the speaker.

The Great Lakes Conference includes Federated Clubwomen from Ohio, Indiana, Michigan, Illinois, Wisconsin and Ontario. The Great Lakes Conference program also included Margaret Moore Post, a well known Indianapolis journalist, who has furnished much leadership in launching the GFWC program, "Women United Against Rape." She explained how, using police phones, a police lab and other facilities which they already had, then adding an intensive training program, Indianapolis, with very little expenditure of money has launched a successful campaign against rape. The conference also included workshops, panels and other group sharing sessions.

Mrs. Poling, secretary of the Ohio Federation of Women's Clubs, has during the past few weeks, attended and participated in the nine district conferences of the Ohio Federation which were held in Toronto, North Canton, Chagrin Falls, Woodville, Toledo, Miamisburg, Cincinnati, Jackson and Columbus.

The five local clubs, Monday Club, Circleville Junior Woman's Club, Ashville Civic Club, Ashville Junior Woman's Club and Saltcreek Town and Country Club, which are affiliated with OFWC, were represented at the Central Ohio River District Conference held in Jackson on October 21st.

Birthday Dinner Held For Members Of Church Class

Members of the Loyal Daughters' Class of Good Shepherd Sunday School having birthdays during the last six months of the year were hosted by the other members Tuesday evening in the Service Center. Six tables were beautifully decorated to seat the honored guests. Grace was offered by the Rev. Eugene Flowers before the bountiful dinner was served to 26 members and four guests.

Following the dinner, Rev. Flowers conducted an election for 1975 class officers which resulted as follows: Mrs. John Kerns, president; Mrs. Carl Wilson, vice president; Mrs. Loring Valentine, secretary; Mrs. George Ankrom, assistant secretary; Mrs. Clarence Merz, treasurer; Mrs. Turney Ross, chorister and Miss Gladys Noggle, pianist.

The program consisted of pictures of Alaska, Hawaii and New Zealand shown by Dr. David Goldschmidt, taken on his tour to Australia for a Rotary convention. Devotions were conducted by Mrs. Harold Baker. She read Psalm 100 and a reading, "Let Us Give Thanks." Prayer was by Mrs. Eugene Flowers.

Marie Wilson conducted a short business meeting. It was announced that a revival will be in progress at the church Nov. 3rd-10th with the Rev. Lon Woodrum as evangelist. The Loyal Daughters' Class will sing for the Thursday evening service.

Two readings were given by Mrs. Charles Ater, "Count Your Garden By Flowers" and "You Tell Me I'm Getting Older." Mrs. Wilson offered the closing prayer.

Annuals On Sale

By MARY HORST
Circleville High School annuals are now on sale through Nov. 15. The cost per book is $6.97 plus tax. The price includes the owner's name in silver lettering on the cover of the annual. Purchases may be made at the high school or by contacting Beth Bushee at 474-5615.

This year's annual will prove to be a little different from previous ones. Quotations from some of this year's seniors concerning life in Circleville will be included. Six additional pages of advertisements will also be printed as "yellow pages" for the first time. "The 1974-1975 Circle Staff has been trained through special workshops, and all members are working hard to bring you the biggest and best year-book yet," said Ty Foster, editor.

Elks Night Of Harmony Featured

By LEIGH HRITZ
The Elks "Night of Harmony", a program featuring all the choirs and stage bands of Pickaway County high schools, will be held at 8 p.m. Saturday in the Circleville High School auditorium.

Representing CHS at the concert will be the stage band, choir, and the newly formed triple trio.

Selections to be performed by the choir will be "The Entertainer," "Dance Alleluia," "Delta Dawn," and "An Old Irish Blessing." The triple trio will perform "Boogie Woogie Bugle Boy."

CHS choir and triple trio director, Mrs. Candice Rigo, commented, "I feel the group is enthusiastic this year. We're looking forward to a great concert."

P.J. Ryall of WNRE radio will MC the concert. Tickets will be sold at the door for $1.25.

Stage Band Readies For Another Year

By KATHY BOWERS
With blasts, squeaks and assorted other noises several students from the Circleville Tiger Marching Band met in the bandroom Oct. 1 for Stage Band tryouts.

Beforehand students were given music to practice, and at tryouts these pieces were played by instrumental sections. The contenders also had to sightread new music.

The 22 students chosen were judged not only on their musical ability but also on their interest and cooperation.

Gary Dean, CHS band director, said, "If the desire is there, they will do great. Extra practices and private lessons all contribute to the success of the group." He says that this year's Stage Band has great potential and instrumentation.

The music that will be played this year is a potpourri of styles including rock, music of the 50's and 60's, and newer music to add a special touch.

Stage band has performed at basketball games, and it won't be any different this year. The Tigers may represent Circleville at an away game this year.

The first performance this year was at Pumpkin Show on Thursday evening, as the crowd heard such music as "One For Jim," "Filet of Soul," "Walk Wild" and more.

The group will play for the Elks Night of Harmony Saturday night in the CHS auditorium.

Other community activities where they will perform will include Kiwanis and Rotary.

Barbara Painter, senior, was chosen pianist for her second year, and she said she feels that this year is going to be better than ever.

One of the newer instrumentalists this year will be Jayne Elsea, a sophomore, playing the guitar.

Riley Rose and Dave Rossiter, both seniors, will share the duties of playing drums. This is Riley's third year and Dave's first.

The alto sax section will consist of seniors Mary Morehart, Susan Holveck, Kathy Bowers and sophomore Arthur Whitfield.

John Neff, junior, and Jerry Yeatts, sophomore, will be playing tenor sax, while senior Fred Mavis fills the part of bari sax.

Comprising the trombone section will be seniors Bob Cullums and Jon Jacobs, juniors Larry Schieber and

On Books And Activities At The Library

A perceptive man suggested a Latin motto to put over the doors of libraries. In translation it read "Happiness lives in this place." We hope you're getting your share of happiness by using the Pickaway Public Library.

A good salty sea-saga is among the new fiction. "The Sinking Of The Sarah Diamond" by William Jennings is sure to please readers who love sailing ships and rough and rowdy crews.

Another kind of a ship figures in the plot of "We Few, We Happy Few" by David Davidson. It's the story of a World War II aircraft carrier and the revelations of her crew years later as they unfold the incidents of battle under pressure.

Agnes Turnbull is the author of a warm, moving novel set in Pennsylvania. It's the tale of a great family farm in the Nineteenth Century and a man's ambitions for it. Love, suspense, humor, and homespun philosophy mix well in "The Richlands."

A New York family chronicle sweeping from the Twenties to the Seventies makes for interesting reading in Jeannie Sakol's new novel "New Year's Eve." It's the story of

Merchants Invited To Clinic

Retail merchants of the Circleville Area Chamber of Commerce will be invited to a free shoplifting clinic at 7:30 p.m. Thursday in the City Council Chambers. Police Chief Robert Temple has invited Joe Martina, head security officer for Lazarus, to speak.

After the portion of the clinic which will be held in the council chambers, the group will go on to Sentry Hardware for a demonstration.

Attendance to the clinic is by registration only and it will not be open to the public.

Topics on the serious criminal aspects of shoplifting will be discussed. In Ohio, shoplifting has become a juvenile pastime since 53 per cent of the offenders are under 18 years of age.

Even with these statistics, shoplifting is not unique to any age, sex or economic group. Fifty-eight per cent of the shoplifters are females.

Another interesting statistic is that 99 per cent of those apprehended for the offense have enough money on them for the items they stole.

Few people realize that the crime is a fourth degree felony and carries a possible sentence of 2-5 years and a maximum fine of $2,500, for first offenders with merchandise exceeding $150 and for second offenders regardless of the value of the merchandise. First offenders even with merchandise under that figure face a maximum jail sentence of six months and a maximum fine of $1,000.

Slim Living Classes To Begin At Y

With the purpose of meeting the needs of the community in new areas, Pickaway County Family YMCA will begin their new Slim Living Classes 7:30 p.m. Wednesday at the Y.

This will be a get acquainted meeting and Mrs. Joan Eller, Slim Living Director, will explain the plan. Everyone, members and non members are welcome to attend this session.

It is hoped that sufficient interest is shown that the Y can conduct these classes on a continuing basis. At least eight people are needed to begin the sessions.

This program is an introduction to a new way of eating for good health and slimness. It also has sensible ideas that will eliminate the need for cooking "diet meals and family meals" separately.

The program will offer help and stimulation in three areas, education, motivation and awareness of body movement.

three generations of women as they meet life.

A sapphire necklace, a rambling castle on the Hudson, amnesia, and strange happenings all add up to a new gothic by Rebecca James entitled "Storm's End."

"Pasmore" by David Storey follows a man's mental downfall and his subsequent regeneration. Colin Pasmore is a well-ordered man when suddenly his life is undermined by a dream.

It's a novel but if you were around from 1932-1945, you're sure to recognize some of the characters. Elliot Baker, the author, writes about Elliot Baker in "Unrequited Loves."

"Tim" by Colleen McCullough is set in Australia. The plot involves a spinster and a handsome, young laborer and something special they share.

"A Time For Truth" by Hans Kirst continues the author's trilogy of journalistic warfare and power politics. This one employs murder to explore corruption of the press.

Spies, mystery, and murder come in for a fair share of the new fiction. "The Spy Who Died Of Boredom" by George Mikes is a funny spy story.

"You're Never Too Old To Die" by Arthur Goldstein involves a group of senior citizens in solving a murder.

Other titles include: "Bread" by Ed McBain; "Target Practice" by Nicholas Meyer; "The Blank Page" by K.C. Constantine; "Gently With The Innocents" by Alan Hunter.

If you're looking for ideas to satisfy the creative urge these long evenings, you'll find temptations in the following new titles: "The Crocheters Art" by Del Feldman; "Embroidery Stitches and Crewel" by Jo Bucher; "The Applique Book" by Charlotte Patera and a six volume set "Golden Hands" edited by Beverly Hilton.

Holiday feasts can be really special if you spend some time with "Step By Step Cookery" by M. Patten or "Larousse Gastronomique" by Prosper Montagne.

Now's a good time to think about becoming more attractive. "The American Girl Beauty Book" by Glynne and "Finishing Touches" by Candy Jones has a lot of good tips.

"Eric" is a story of great courage. It's written by Doris Lund and chronicles the last four years of her 17 year old son's life. Eric was dying with acute leukemia but, in reality, he was living a lifetime.

"FDR's Last Year" by Jim Bishop is an intimate portrait of a great leader in his time of trial.

"Hollywood" by Kanin Garson is the memoirs of the writer-director of his years in Movieland during the 30's and 40's.

Baseball fans will be interested in "One For The Record" by George Plimpton. It's the inside story of Hank Aaron's chase for the home-run record.

Parents and teachers working with youngsters at the reading age will find "Reading" by Pamela McKeown a helpful guide.

Be sure to watch for announcements of some 'fun and informative' programs to be held in the library during November. Libraries have changed! Come in and pick up some happiness.

State officials charge that the Cliffside crew took wildlife agent Gerald C. Scott, 32, of Port Clinton back to Canada with them after he tried to arrest the crew for illegally fishing in Ohio waters.

Scott said members of the Cliffside's five-man crew scuffled with him when he boarded the boat off North Bass Island in Lake Erie to try to make an arrest.

Two Ohio wildlife boats pursued the Cliffside through thick fog 30 miles across the lake to Kingsville, Ont., state officials reported.

Meanwhile, Ohio officials had called the FBI, the U.S. Coast Guard, the State Department and Canadian authorities.

Scott said he was released unharmed when Royal Canadian Mounted Police and other authorities met the Cliffside at Kingsville.

Scott said he and another agent, Paul Wynn, had been checking the area east of North Bass Island because of reports of illegal fishing there.

He said he saw the Cliffside with its nets being worked in Ohio waters.

Agent 'Kidnapped'

PORT CLINTON, Ohio (AP)—Ohio Natural Resources Director William Nye is threatening to seek kidnapping charges against crewmen of the Canadian fishing vessel the Cliffside in the latest clash between state wildlife agents and Canadian fishermen.

State officials charge that the Cliffside crew took wildlife agent Gerald C. Scott, 32, of Port Clinton back to Canada with them after he tried to arrest the crew for illegally fishing in Ohio waters.

Scott said members of the Cliffside's five-man crew scuffled with him when he boarded the boat off North Bass Island in Lake Erie to try to make an arrest.

Scott said he was released unharmed when Royal Canadian Mounted Police and other authorities met the Cliffside at Kingsville.

Scott said he and another agent, Paul Wynn, had been checking the area east of North Bass Island because of reports of illegal fishing there.

He said he saw the Cliffside with its nets being worked in Ohio waters.

When the Canadian boat spotted the wildlife craft, it sped north, Scott said.

He said he tried to halt the Cliffside by positioning his boat in front of it but said the Cliffside "kept right on coming."

He said he pulled out of the way, then went alongside, boarded the Cliffside while both boats were moving and told the crew they were under arrest.

Scott identified the captain of the Cliffside as Elmer L. Simpson of Kingsville.

Nye called it the "most serious incident to date" in the series of international disputes involving Canadian operators accused of overstepping the bounds in their quest for fish.

Waverly Couple Dies In Crash

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—Amza and William Neff of Waverly, Ohio, were among four passengers from an American cruise ship who were killed when their tour bus collided with a truck in Guatemala, according to a spokesman for Royal Viking Lines.

The accident occurred in San Tomas de Castilla, the spokesman said. The tourists were passengers aboard the luxury Royal Viking Sea, which left New Orleans Saturday for a 13-day cruise.

NEW YORK (AP) — First the good news. General Motors, which will sell perhaps $30-billion worth of goods to the world during the next year, has stated it plans no more increases on its 1975 automobile models.

For a company of such size — it is the largest manufacturing enterprise in the world — such a statement is extraordinary, especially since GM already is under price pressure from its suppliers and others.

In taking its stand, the company introduces a degree of stability into an uncertain atmosphere.

Among other things, the move reassures car buyers that they need not rush into the market now in order to avoid higher prices in months to come, thus reducing the fear of the future as a cause of inflation.

It all but compels competitors to maintain similarly stable pricing programs. It offers an example by which other companies can measure their own prices. It might even impose a moral restraint on GM suppliers.

In summary, it might not have the impact of a move by the Federal Reserve Board or the Ford administration budget makers, but its impact cannot be underestimated either.

GM last year sold $35.8 billion of cars, diesels, air-conditioners, batteries, trucks, buses, refrigerators, construction items and other products. It buys hundreds of millions of dollars of glass, rubber, steel. Its employment never has fallen below 660,000 in the past decade.

It is the most powerful corporation in the world, and its impact is felt not only by every American but by millions abroad.

And now the bad news.

While GM is thus making its contribution to the anti-inflation effort, it is simultaneously preparing for and reacting to a major downturn in the U.S. economy. It will be buying less, selling less, employing fewer workers and earning less.

It cannot earn the same as a year ago, in fact, unless it pares its costs. It claims already to be absorbing $100 of increased costs since 1975-model prices were announced.

Corporate officers announced a week ago that current income has been "adversely affected by rapidly rising costs, reduced volume, and by strikes," the latter occurring mainly at suppliers.

If it already has decided to avoid higher prices as a route out of this earnings predicament, its only other choice is to cut costs. In good times this can be done by increasing sales, but that option also has been closed.

In summary, GM must retrench, and that means everyone associated with GM must think about cutting back — its suppliers, employees, dealer-distributors, rail and motor carriers, advertisers, and maybe even recipients of GM dividends.

Menominee Indians once controlled some 9,500,000 acres of Wisconsin, National Geographic says. Their holdings were reduced to 275,000 acres in a treaty between the tribe and the United States in 1854. Today, the Menominees' reservation covers about 230,000 acres.

Ted Brown Still Leads Race

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The outcome of the race for secretary of state hinges, many statehouse politicians believe, in part on how the two candidates for governor fare.

Secretary of State Ted W. Brown, 68-year-old Republican incumbent, is getting one of the toughest challenges in his long career from state Sen. Tony P. Hall, 32, but the polls show Brown well ahead.

Hall has repeatedly tried to carry the campaign to Brown, but the 24-year veteran of Ohio political wars ignores Hall's jibes.

Brown, the only Republican to survive the 1958 Democratic landslide, campaigns as he has in the past. He never mentions Hall or answers any of Hall's charges.

Hall's campaign issue at the beginning was what he called the "great chicken caper." He claimed Brown didn't properly audit former Gov. James A. Rhodes' chicken dinner fund raiser last year.

Lately Hall has expanded the issue, claiming Brown has been unethical in his office by leaning to Republicans when he has to break a tie vote on local boards of elections.

Brown just chuckles. He claims he probably has voted against GOP members as much as for them. He once fired the entire Cuyahoga County Board of Elections, Republicans included.

"I am campaigning on my record of 24 years," said Brown. "I think even my Democratic friends know that this office has always been one that provided service."

Polls until now indicate a large Republican segment of the population may stay home election day, a forecast that was making some Republicans, including Brown, a little jittery.

Brown, however, believes that has changed in the last week.

"Gilligan isn't turning anybody on," he said.

He referred to incumbent Democratic Gov. John J. Gilligan. Brown believes President Ford's trip to Cleveland put some enthusiasm back into the GOP campaign.

Hall plugs away. Brown said Hall has spent $156,000 on the campaign thus far. Hall shows no sign of letting up.

"We feel good about our chances," said his press secretary, John Milton. "There's been something in the air the last couple of weeks. You can just feel it."

Willie's Dillies

By A BENCHWARMER

Circleville moved from 14th place to 10th place in the Ohio High School Computerized Football Ranking System, even though they beat Washington C.H., last week's 11th place team.

The win handed Circleville 22 points, giving them 62.5 in eight games. Dayton Jefferson, which topped the poll last week with 62.5 points, beat Carlisle 21-12 last Friday and accumulated 23.5 computer points to remain in first place in the region.

High school poll creator Jack Harbin, in the process of developing one for college teams, has dropped Ohio State to 10th place.

Michigan is way out in front followed by Texas A&M, Florida, Alabama, Texas Tech, Oklahoma, Missouri, Auburn, Maryland, and the Bucks.

The second of three testing dates for interscholastic sports officials is Nov. 25. Men and women interested in officiating basketball (girls and boys) wrestling, swimming, boy's gymnastics, and ice hockey must apply by Monday.

Applications are available at the OHSAA, 4080 Roselea Place, P.O. Box 3748, Columbus, Ohio, 43213. Phone number is 267-2502.

Rick Sampson set a Circleville High School record two weeks ago when he returned a kickoff 88 yards for the touchdown that beat Miami Trace.

The previous mark was 85 yards set by Gerald Dade in 1961.

Fearless Forecasts: It'll be the third shutout for the Tigers who will wrap up a much-deserved SCOL title tonight . . . And they will share the crown with Miami Trace who will make the Lions blue for the second week in a row . . . Teays Valley will come on strong against Dublin . . . Big Ten Battles To Be Lopsided

By JERRY LISKA

AP Sports Writer

The two Big Ten teams—Michigan State and Illinois—with a slim chance to crack the conference's Ohio State-Michigan dynasty—could have that possibility smashed Saturday.

Crippled Illinois with the same 2-1-1 league record as Michigan State is a four-touchdown underdog in a visit to Ohio State (4-0) to challenge the nationally top-ranked Buckeyes.

Michigan State, playing host next week to Ohio State, has a tough enough hurdle Saturday at Wisconsin (2-2) which appeared the Big Ten's strongest sleeper until the Badgers bowed successively to Ohio State and Michigan.

Meanwhile, Michigan (4-0) is a prohibitive favorite at Indiana (1-3) to keep pace with Ohio State atop the league standings and add more significance to the season-closing tangle between the Wolverines and Buckeyes at Columbus, Ohio, Nov. 23.

Other Saturday Conference contests include surprising Iowa (2-2) at Purdue (1-3) and last-place Northwestern (0-4) at Minnesota (1-3).

The day's most lively and interesting battle should be Michigan State's tangle with freewheeling Wisconsin, which earlier upset Nebraska and two weeks ago succumbed to Michigan 24-20.

Michigan State three weeks ago lost to neighborhood archrival Michigan 21-7 but Spartan coach Denny Stolz said this week he considered his club "very much so" in championship contention.

Wisconsin is pegged less than a touchdown pick in the scrap before a sellout crowd of 78,000 at Madison, Wis., with the Badgers expecting a healthy Billy Marek to rejoin Ken Starch, Larry Canada and Mike Morgan in their fine running corps.

A sharp quarterback duel should develop between Wisconsin's able passing Gregg Bohlig and Michigan State's elusive scooter, Charley Baggett.

Ohio State's amazing Archie Griffin should race up a NCAA record 18th straight game of 100-plus yards rushing against an Illinois team which has only two healthy tackles and is otherwise battered on defense.

An Ohio State's stadium crowd of 87,000 will watch Woody Hayes strive for his 200th collegiate coaching victory and his 167th in his 24-year Buckeye regime.

Undefeated Cards Face Dallas

By KEN RAPPOPORT

AP Sports Writer

The St. Louis Cardinals are playing Cowboys and Indians this year ... and they're the guys who always win.

After shooting down the Washington Redskins for the second time this season last week, the high-riding Cardinals hope to accomplish the same thing against the Dallas Cowboys this Sunday.

The Cardinals, undefeated in seven National Football League games, can just about tie a rope on a divisional championship with a victory at Texas Stadium.

"If they win, that's it as far as the National Conference Eastern title is concerned," said Dallas Coach Tom Landry.

Ironically, the Cardinals are 3-1-2 point underdogs despite their perfect record, which dramatically overshadows the Cowboys' 3-4 mark in the East.

The Buffalo Bills and New England Patriots play an important game Sunday, too. The Bills and Patriots, locked in a tie for first place with 6-1 records in the American Conference's East Division, meet for the second time in three weeks. The Bills won their first meeting at Buffalo 30-28.

CJHS Blasts Westfall 26-8

The Circleville 7th and 8th grade football team blasted Westfall Junior High 26-8 Thursday on the Mustang field.

Circleville's hard-hitting defense, led by Jeff Strawser, Tim Pontious, and a host of others, stopped Westfall early in the game and turned the ball over to the potent offense.

Circleville got great blocking on the offensive line from Dave Happeney, Jeff Strawser, Tim Welliver, Dave Stout, Dennis Lester, Andy Leach, and Tim Pontious. They dominated the line of scrimmage as the Tiger backs ran well all night.

The Tigers took a 6-0 lead in the first period when fullback Tom Logan scored from five yards out.

Circleville regained possession after Westfall had a bad snap from center on a punt attempt and went into score from the 10-yard-line with Tom Logan carrying.

With time running out in the first half, Logan broke loose for a 75-yard scoring run. Richard Pfeiffer scored the extra points to make it 20-0 at the half.

At the beginning of the fourth quarter, Pat Poorman scored Circleville's final touchdown on a one-yard sneak.

Westfall scored with two minutes to go in the game.

Coach Edgar and Coach Billman praised the young Tigers for a strong offensive and defensive showing. Both coaches praised the players for a strong showing in the second half of the season to finish with a record of 2-3-1.

League games Sunday, the Oakland Raiders play the Denver Broncos; the Philadelphia Eagles meet the Pittsburgh Steelers; the Minnesota Vikings take on the Chicago Bears; Washington plays the Green Bay Packers; the Detroit Lions host the New Orleans Saints; the Cincinnati Bengals visit the Baltimore Colts; the Miami Dolphins entertain the Atlanta Falcons; the New York Giants travel to Kansas City for a meeting with the Chiefs; the San Diego Chargers play at home against the Cleveland Browns and the Houston Oilers are in New York for a game with the Jets.

In the weekly Monday night game, the Los Angeles Rams play the San Francisco 49ers.

The Cardinals, off to their best start in history, will bank on Jim Hart's arm and Jim Bakken's toe — two weapons that have propelled them to the front of the NFL class.

While the Cardinals have Hart, the No. 1 passer in the NFC, the Cowboys can boast the No. 1 pass-catcher in the NFL—Drew Pearson. Pearson has 38 receptions for 644 yards so far this year.

The showdown battle between Buffalo and New England matches a pair of high-powered teams who can kill you by land or air. O.J. Simpson, the record-breaking runner, leads the Buffalo offense while New England depends on Jim Plunkett, the AFC's No. 3 passer.

Oakland can just about wipe out Denver in the AFC West with a victory over the Broncos. The Raiders, with a 6-1, hold a 2-1/2-game lead over Denver, 3-3-1.

Pittsburgh, 5-1-1, leading the NFC Central race by 1-1/2 games, can improve their status for a playoff berth

Game Time Is 7:30 At Logan Elm High

The Logan Elm vs Amanda-Clearcreek football game will begin at 7:30 p.m. tonight, one half hour earlier than usual.

The kickoff has been advanced so the students may hold the homecoming dance following the game.

Lynn Swann Lost To Steelers; Hurt

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The Pittsburgh Steelers say rookie wide receiver and punt returner Lynn Swann will be lost for an indefinite period with a compound dislocation of the ring finger on his right hand.

Swann suffered the injury while catching a pass Thursday as the Steelers tuned up for Sunday's National Football League game with the Philadelphia Eagles.

by beating Philadelphia. The Eagles, 43 in the East, need this one badly to stay within striking distance of the playoffs.

Minnesota, 5-2, leader in the NFC Central by two games, hope to stop a two-game losing streak. Chicago hopes to continue it to three games, something that hasn't happened to the Vikings since 1968.

Washington, 4-3, meets Green Bay, 3-4, in a battle of second-place teams. The Redskins are tied with Philadelphia for second in the NFC East and the Packers are locked in a tie with Detroit and Chicago in the NFC Central race.

New Orleans and Detroit each hope to reach the .500 mark. The Saints are guided by John North, an assistant coach with the Lions for eight seasons before going to New Orleans.

Cincinnati gave up the ball on fumbles five times while losing last week's 34-21 decision to Houston and can't afford to repeat that lackluster performance against Baltimore.

Miami, 5-2 in the AFC East, faces a significant game, since, unless there is a tie, one of the teams ahead of the Dolphins will win Sunday in the Buffalo-New England contest.

Newly-acquired Craig Morton will start for the Giants, who have lost four straight games. Cleveland broke a four-game losing streak last week with an upset victory over Denver and wants to continue that momentum Sunday. Houston and the New York Jets, two big losers this season, match bomb-throwing quarterbacks in Dan Pastorini and Joe Namath.

Illinois, Indiana On Chop Block

By KEN RAPPOPORT
AP Sports Writer
Look who's coming to dinner at Columbus ... Illinois.

The crippled Illini would seem to be easy pickings Saturday for Ohio State, the nation's No. 1 team. The Buckeyes have been feasting on everyone else this year.

While the undefeated Buckeyes have the pleasure of Illinois' company, Big Ten Conference colleague Michigan, the other bully in that league, will be dining out at Indiana.

Michigan, No. 3 in the country and right up there with the voracious Buckeyes in the Big Ten race, is a prohibitive favorite to beat the Hoosiers.
Both the Illinois and Indiana coaches realize what kind of odds they face with those two bone-busters as opponents.
"We have nothing to lose but everything to gain," said Illinois

Coach Bob Blackman. "And it doesn't change the fact that Ohio State is one of the great college teams of all time."
In preparation for his overwhelming task, Indiana Coach Lee Corso said: "Michigan is a team that has everything, but we'll really be supercharged — really go after them."
But both Ohio State and Michigan are undefeated in seven games and seem intent on keeping it that way until their much-heralded meeting in the last game of the regular season.
In the other games involving Top Ten teams Saturday, it's No. 2 Oklahoma at Iowa State; No. 4 Alabama at No. 17 Mississippi State; No. 5 Auburn at No. 11 Florida; California visiting No. 6 Southern California; seventh-ranked Notre Dame vs. Navy in Philadelphia; Arkansas at No. 8 Texas A&M; No. 9 Nebraska at Colorado and 10th-rated Penn State hosting No. 15 Maryland.

Among the rest of the ranked teams, No. 12 Texas entertains SMU; No. 13 Texas Tech visits Rice; No. 16 Miami plays Western Michigan; 18th-rated UCLA plays at Washington; No. 19 Temple visits Cincinnati and San Diego State, No. 20, takes on North Texas State.
Illinois, which has enough problems just facing Ohio State, will have to also overcome a lot of injuries. Illinois, battered on defense, has only two healthy tackles to face awesome Archie Griffin & Co.
Ohio State's fabulous running back is seeking to extend his NCAA record of 17 straight 100-yard games. Ohio State Coach Woody Hayes will try to get his 200th career victory, 167 with Ohio State. A crowd of 87,000 is expected to be on hand for the game.

The Big Two from the Big Ten aren't the only football bullies favored to kick their opponents Saturday.
Oklahoma, playing out a lame duck season because of NCAA violations, Southern Cal, Notre Dame and Nebraska all rate the "heavy" role in their games.
Alabama, Auburn, Texas A&M and Penn State are not so fortunate this weekend. All of those Top Ten teams have tougher sparmates.

Knicks Victorious; Frazier Injured

NEW YORK (AP) — Walt Frazier, the heart of the New York Knicks' offense and the soul of its defense, scored the first two points at Madison Square Garden Thursday night.

Less than a minute later, the veteran guard lay sprawled on the court, his hands covering his face, his legs kicking out in agony.

"I thought I was blind. I couldn't open my eye," Frazier said later before being taken to a hospital.

The captain of the Knicks was scrambling for a loose ball under the Atlanta Hawks basket just 45 seconds into the game.

"Someone caught me in the eye," he said. "It was very painful. It was frightening."

A television replay showed Hawks' rookie sensation John Drew had accidentally jabbed his finger into Frazier's left eye. A spokesman for the National Basketball Association team said "Clyde," as Frazier likes to call himself, suffered a conjunctival tear, a cut on the white of the eyeball.

He will be examined again Friday and is expected to be out from five to seven days.

With Frazier, the team's leading scoring in each of the last four seasons, out of action, the burden fell on the Knicks' other veteran guard, Earl Monroe.

Monroe pumped in 35 points, high for New York this season, as the Knicks edged Atlanta 93-90.

In other NBA games Thursday, Houston nipped Washington 95-92 and Cleveland defeated Detroit 118-101. There were no American Basketball Association games scheduled.

Miami Of Ohio Goes After Title

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — "I don't think anybody is getting their feet off the ground yet," said Miami of Ohio football Coach Dick Crum.

"We haven't won anything. I don't think our people will let up. They want to win," said the coach of the Mid-American Conference leaders.

Crum has the job of arousing 16th-ranked Miami for lastplace Western Michigan Saturday after winning the league's game of the year last week at Toledo 38-22.

Miami, 3-0 in the conference, can lock up a title tie by whipping the visiting Broncos, 0-4, and almost assure itself of a second straight trip to the Tangerine Bowl.

Even so, Western Michigan Coach Bill Doolittle thinks the Broncos have a chance of stopping Miami's undefeated streak at 19 games.

But he admitted, "We're no Purdue, no Kentucky and we're not leading the Mid-American."

Doolittle was asked his evaluation of Miami.

"Do you have a dictionary with a few adjectives? I'd like to start with a dictionary," he replied.

"Against Miami," Doolittle said, "you just can't stop one guy. They have so many weapons. And their line is as good as I've seen it."

The Western Michigan coach is equally impressed with the Miami defense, especially middle guard Brad Cousino.

"He has so much of a talent to get to the ball. He's one of the finest players I've seen at any level of competition," Doolittle said of the Redskins' defensive whiz.

Western Michigan, a nonwinner at Miami since 1940, has been hit hard by injuries.

Three regulars, defensive end Mark Lundell and cornerbacks Wes Cates and Dave Gapinski, have undergone operations this week. Star tailback Dan Matthews is out, too, with cracked ribs.

The only other conference game Saturday sends Ohio University against Bowling Green, tied for third place with 2-2 records.

Nonconference contests have Central Michigan at Eastern Michigan, Kent State at Marshall, Ball State at Middle Tennessee and Northern Illinois at Toledo (night).

Flyers Rip Rangers;

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The Broad Street Bullies gave the New York Rangers a licking Thursday night with Bobby Clark, one of their biggest bullies, doing a lot of the damage.

"They were great with their forechecking," said New York Coach Emile Francis after losing a 5-1 National Hockey League decision to the Philadelphia Flyers. "They were on top of us before we knew it."

Triggered by Clark, the Flyers scored two lightning goals at the start of the second period to turn the game into a rout.

Ross Lonsberry and Bill Clement scored two goals apiece for Philadelphia. Clement opened the scoring at 6:41 of the first period. His second goal came at the end of the second period when his shot deflected off the skates of New York goalie Ed Giacomin.

Both of Lonsberry's goals came in the second period — first a tip-in of a centering pass from Rick MacLeish and, later, a power-play goal.

Reggie Leach also got a second-period goal to give Philadelphia a 5-0 advantage going into the final period.

Bobby Rousseau put the Rangers on the scoreboard in the third period with a powerplay goal, foiling Bernie Parent's shutout bid.

In the other NHL games, the Montreal Canadiens whipped the Washington Capitals 3-0 and the Los Angeles Kings and St. Louis Blues played to a 1-1 tie. In the World Hockey Association, the Cleveland Crusaders downed the Michigan Stags 4-2; the New England Whalers walloped the Indianapolis Racers 6-1 and San Diego trimmed Chicago 4-3.

ATTENTION TO FRIENDS & MEMBERS OF EDUCATION

Senate Bill 350 which was sponsored by Oakley Collins MANDATES PAY INCREASES FOR TEACHERS to local boards of education with funds being provided by the state for only the first session. Is it not ironic that a member of the legislature would attempt to take credit for a pay raise without money to provide that raise? Pray tell me how is this possible? A pay raise without money!!

I GRANT McDONALD DO NOT BELIEVE THAT IT IS PROPER TO MANDATE LOCAL BOARDS OF EDUCATION & LOCAL GOVERNMENT WITH ADDITIONAL SERVICES & RESPONSIBILITIES WITHOUT PROVIDING THE ADDITIONAL FUNDING FROM THE STATE.

GRANT McDONALD WILL PROPOSE THAT THE STATE ALLOCATION TO EDUCATION WILL INCREASE FROM THE PRESENT 34-36 Pct. to 50 Pct. participation by the state from funds from STATE INCOME TAX.

Local Candidates Face Voters Mark

WAYNE HINES

Candidates for Sixth District Representative to Congress include Republican incumbent William H. Harsha and Democrat Lloyd A. Wood. Serving 14 years as congressman, Harsha is the ranking Republican on the House Public Works Committee. He is the only American to receive the International Road Safety Award and the first American to receive Award of Life. He is a graduate of Kenyon College and Western Reserve Law School. Lloyd A. Wood, a former research scientist, is from Chillicothe. He taught in the Chillicothe Public School System and Harvard and Cornell Universities. He also served as chief of University Research Program National Aeronautics and Space Administration, scientist in advanced technology in NASA program planning; and director of physical and electronic sciences, Air Force Office of Scientific Research.

DON STROUS

He is a graduate of Oberlin College, Stanford University, and Harvard University. Pickaway County voters will be faced with two new names in the 17th District State Senatorial race. Democrat Grant McDonald, Chillicothe, is a trade school graduate. Presently a Ross County Commissioner, he is a former union steward in the paper mill. Oakley C. Collins, Ironton, is a graduate of Ohio University. He has been a member of the Ohio Senate for 18 years and the House of Representatives for four years. He is presently the State Representative in the 92nd District. Democratic incumbent Myrl Shoemaker is the only candidate for the state representative, 88th House District. He is construction superintendent, state representative and past board member and clerk-treasurer of Twin and Paint Valley School Districts.

MARGARET REMY

Two candidates campaigning for the non-partisan contest for the State Board of Education representing the Sixth District are Ward M. Miller and Jean Bildsten. Ms. Bildsten is a registered nurse graduate of Mansfield General School of Nursing and is a former nurse at the Veteran's Hospital. She is a former state chairman for the school building assistance task force; former member statewide commission on Public School Personnel Policies in Ohio and a member of the Pickaway-Ross Joint Vocational School Advisory Board. Miller, a graduate of Ohio State University and Harvard, is presently a commercial and industrial real estate salesman in Portsmouth. He is a former college instructor and magazine editor and five-term member of the state board of education. Candidates for Pickaway County Commissioner are Donald E. Strous,

NED DRESBACH

Democrat and Wayne Hines, Republican. Hines, Republican, is a graduate of Walnut Township High School and a life-time resident of Pickaway County. A prominent dairy farmer until 1970. Hines served five years on the Walnut Township School Board. Strous, Democrat, has served 16 years as a Saltcreek Township Trustee; 15 years on the advisory council-Board of Health and five years, chairman Pickaway County Trustees and Clerks Association. Margaret H. Remy, Democrat and Ned H. Dresbach, Republican, are two familiar names campaigning for the position as Pickaway County Auditor. A marketer for Atlantic Richfield Products, Dresbach served as deputy county auditor for 12 years and as chief deputy auditor for four years. Ms. Remy, graduate of Madison Mills High School, is presently the deputy auditor in the auditor's office. She later attended Bliss College.

Dear Abby:

By Abigail Van Buren

Don't Climb Family Tree

DEAR ABBY: I've always been very proud of the fact that my family came to Massachusetts from England in 1637. My husband says it's nothing to brag about because the people who came here then were all criminals who had been run out of England. My husband is of Italian descent. His parents didn't come here until 1900, but he claims he came from "royalty." He says that years ago when an Italian nobleman would get a peasant girl pregnant, the girl would leave her illegitimate baby on someone's doorstep. My husband says that he was such a child because his name, when translated, is the one given to those abandoned babies. Anyway, I want to know whether I should be proud of my ancestry or ashamed? And how about my husband?

NEW ENGLANDER
DEAR NEW: Intelligent, discerning people don't judge others by what their ancestors did, so don't take any bows, or accept any blame for yours.

As I see it, the only aristocracy worth bragging about is the aristocracy of achievement. Everyone must stand on his own record. DEAR ABBY: My husband's secretary has given him many costly gifts, ranging from travel accessories to art during the two years she has worked for him. Some of the cards she has enclosed with these gifts have been embarrassingly personal. I feel certain she is pursuing him, although he says he thinks I'm mistaken.

This young woman is divorced and has two children, and I know she could put her money to better use than buying gifts for my husband. And I wish she would. How do we let her know?

PUZZLED IN N.J.
DEAR PUZZLED: This is not a job

Cycle Crash Kills Brecksville Man

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP)—Kenneth Lincoln, 27, of Brecksville was killed early today when his motorcycle and a car collided in Valley View, authorities reported. Details of the accident were unavailable.

for "we"-your husband should handle it alone. And if he really wants to discourage further gift giving, he will-toot sweet!

DEAR ABBY: About six weeks ago, I met an insurance agent who happened to call at my door. I don't usually invite strangers in, but this man seemed exceptionally nice. Also, being single, I was more interested in him than I was in insurance.

After talking to him, I learned that he is new in town, and recently divorced.

First I invited him to my home for dinner, then he invited me out, and we've been dating ever since. After six weeks of enjoying each other's company he still hasn't invited me to see where he lives. I've hinted, but he hasn't offered. He spends too much time with me to be married, so that can't be the reason. Abby, why doesn't he want me to see where he lives?

I enjoy his company, and he takes me out a lot, but should I continue to invite him to my home when he never invites me to his?

BOTHERED

DEAR BOTHERED: He could be living in a cheap rooming house or an apartment of which he isn't very proud. As a newly divorced man he may have taken a financial beating, and is trying to get on his feet again. Don't fault him. You've known him only six weeks. Give him more time.

Voters To Elect State Leaders

A record turnout is expected in the November elections according to state officials.

The top state position is at stake between Democrat Governor John J. Gilligan, incumbent and Republican James A. Rhodes, former governor. Nancy Brown Lazar, Socialist Workers Party, is the third candidate vying for the number one position.

Gilligan received his bachelor's degree from Notre Dame University and master's degree from Xavier University, Cincinnati. He was a literature instructor at Xavier University, 1948-53.

He has served on the Cincinnati City Council and was U.S. Congressman from Ohio's first district.

The Bureau of Narcotics and Dangerous Drugs of the U.S. Department of Justice presented Gilligan with an award for "significant personal efforts to help eliminate drug abuse in 1973, the first time a governor had received such an award.

Rhodes, a Republican, attended Ohio State University and has received 13 honorary degrees from colleges and universities. He previously served two terms as governor; auditor of state and mayor of Columbus.

Socialist Worker Nancy Lazar,

Cleveland, attended Antioch College and graduated from Gould Academy, Maine.

Lieutenant Governor candidates include John W. Brown, Republican; Richard F. Celeste, Democrat; and Herman Kirsch, Independent.

Incumbent Brown has served the office lieutenant governor, governor, member of the senate and house of representatives. He is a 1932 graduate of Lancaster High School.

Cleveland Celeste is a graduate of Yale University, with a BA in History. He is presently a State Representative from Cuyahoga County.

Kirsch is the Independent candidate from Shaker Heights.

Attorney General candidates are George C. Smith, Republican and William J. Brown, Democrat.

Incumbent Brown is a graduate of Duquesne University and Ohio Northern University College of Law. He has been successful in such areas as drug abuse, criminal investigation, consumer frauds and the environment, while in this office.

George C. Smith, graduate of Ohio State University, is the present prosecuting attorney in Franklin County.

Candidates for auditor of state are Thomas E. Ferguson Democrat and Roger W. Tracy Jr., Republican. Neither is the incumbent.

A graduate of Miami University and Ohio State University, Tracy is presently an attorney in Columbus. He has served as a state representative, 1966-70.

Ferguson, the son of the present State Auditor, is a graduate of Ohio State University.

Presently the deputy auditor of state, Ferguson has over 20 years in business and governmental experience.

Tony P. Hall Democrat and Ted W. Brown, Republican, are the candidates vying for the office of Secretary of State.

Incumbent Brown is a graduate of Wittenberg College and has served as the Secretary of State since 1958.

He is responsible for the Voter Information Program, a communication communicating the rights and duties of citizenship to Ohioans in general and first-time voters in particular.

Hall, graduate of Denison University, is presently a state senator.

Serving two years in the peace corps, he was elected to two terms as a state representative before becoming senator.

Candidates for the treasurer of state include Democratic Incumbent Gertrude W. Donahey and Republican Richard H. Harris.

Mrs. Donahey graduated from business college and has earned 74 million dollars in investments, which is the most ever made in the history of the office.

Harris, a legal administrative aide, is a graduate of Bowling Green State University and Defiance College.

He has served with the Ohio Bureau of Workmen's Compensation for 11 years.

Four names are on the ballot for the position of U.S. Senate: John Glenn, Democrat; Ralph J. Perk, Republican; Richard B. Kay and Kathleen G. Harroff, both independents.

A graduate of Muskingum College, Glenn has received honorary degrees from five other universities and colleges.

He is also the owner of five Holiday Inns and on the Royal Crown, Inc., and Questor Corp. Boards.

He is a retired United States Marine Corps Colonel.

Perk is presently the mayor of Cleveland in his second term. He has served on the Cleveland city council and county auditor.

Though he is not a college graduate, he has had some special college courses.

Kay, Independent, is an attorney

Two Young Attorneys Open New Law Office

John H. Farthing and Paul Eugene (Gene) Long II, two young local attorneys have decided to open a new law office in Circleville. The Farthing and Long Law offices will be located at 443 N. Court St., in Dr. David Goldschmidt's old office space and will be open for business today.

Regular office hours of 8 a.m. until 12 noon will be observed Saturday and 8 a.m. until 5 p.m. on weekdays.

Long was notified Thursday that he had passed the bar examination and will be sworn in next Friday. The office staff will consist of the two attorneys and one secretary. The new firm will engage in the general practice of law involving all phases.

Both men have been associated with the Huffer and Huffer firm. Farthing joined the firm Sept. 1, 1973 and worked as a legal researcher until he was notified he had passed the bar examination. On Nov. 3, 1973, he was officially admitted to practice and took on a regular case load with the firm.

Long has been a law clerk with the Huffers since April 1. He took the bar examination in July after attending law school at the University of Toledo. Long said the four months between the bar examination and his notification that he had passed was a harrowing time.

He took undergraduate classes and received a bachelor of business administration degree from Ohio University and received his juris doctor degree from UT.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Long of Williamsport and is married to the former Pam Speakman, the daughter of Jane and the late George Speakman.

The Longs are the parents of one son, Paul III, and live at 579 Plaza Drive.

Farthing received his bachelor's degree from the University of Illinois and his juris doctor degree from Capital University. He attended evening classes at Capital for four years while working as personnel director for the local Owens-Illinois plant. Capital offers one of the largest evening programs in law in the state.

A native of Lincoln, Ill., Farthing and his wife Maggie live at 558 N. Pickaway St. and are the parents of two sons, Jeffrey, 6, and Michael, 5.

Both Farthing and Long are previous employees of the Owens-Illinois company. Long was in sales with the firm on the east coast in the Industrial Kimble products. Although they had one previous conversation while with the company, they did not meet until both were in law here in Circleville.

ATTENTION EDUCATORS!

Rep. Oakley Collins says in his advertisement this week that he proposes to increase educational benefits and at the same time not to increase local taxes as he proposes to acquire money from the state income tax. Isn't it ironic that at this time that he would want to take funds from the state income tax which he voted AGAINST.

GRANT McDONALD

CANDIDATE FOR

STATE SENATOR 17th DISTRICT

Issued by: Committee to Elect McDonald
Austin E. Woodward, Treas., 23 S. Paint St. Chillicothe, O.

By FRANCIS DRAKE

Look in the section in which your birthday comes and find what your outlook is, according to the stars.

FOR SATURDAY

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 20): An unexpected invitation to an evening function could strengthen your social standing considerably. Don't hesitate to accept.

TAURUS (Apr. 21 to May 21): Self-control and a determination to avoid arguments required now. Persons born under some Signs may be a bit "edgy" so do nothing to stir up differences.

GEMINI (May. 22 to June 21): You may have to make, some quick moves. Answer is to have alternative methods in mind. Some of your philosophical concepts are now subject to sudden change.

CANCER (June 22 to July 23): Ignore rumors and correct misunderstandings wherever you can. But remember that the more quietly you handle such matters the more successful will be your efforts.

LEO (July 24 to Aug. 23): Avoid present tendencies toward recklessness and extravagance. You could regret such actions later.

VIRGO (Aug. 24 to Sept. 23): A good day for planning next week's program. Be especially astute in mapping out budgetary requirements. You may be faced with some unforeseen expenses.

LIBRA (Sept. 24 to Oct. 23): An unexpected invitation to an evening get-together holds some interesting surprises. Just what you need!

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 to Nov. 23): You may have been dwelling too much and too long on job and business affairs. Seek out your gayest and most frivolous companions and indulge in a bit of "escapism."

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 to Dec. 21): Don't let loyalty to an associate involve you in a bizarre situation. It's a day for being strictly conventional.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20): Extravagance in general not recommended, but spending on business entertaining now justified if good will results.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19): Nip unwholesome suggestions in the bud. They don't deserve a thought. But useful ideas warrant encouragement. Be up and doing in profitable areas.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20): From out of nowhere may come a unique suggestion. No harm in considering its possibilities: It could prove highly interesting.

YOU BORN TODAY are endowed with a high order of intellect, a lively imagination and are extremely progressive in your thinking. Always active, your nature is an adventurous one and you are always ready to try "something new." This latter quality gives you great potentials for succeeding in the scientific fields — especially in medicine, where most natives of Scorpio shine. Extremely versatile, however, there are many other careers which would prove excellent outlets for your talents, notably: business management, writing, the theater, the law, politics, exploration of any type. Birthdate of: Daniel Boone, Amer. frontiersman; James J. Polk and Warren G. Harding, U.S. Presidents; Burt Lancaster, screen star.

Retreads Ease Disposal Problem

WASHINGTON (AP) — More than 200 million tire casings are discarded each year in the U.S., according to the Tire Retread Information Bureau. That's enough to circle the earth four times at the equator.

Retreads are a way of recycling tires while saving valuable crude oil reserves. It takes seven gallons of oil to produce an average automobile tire, but only 2½ gallons to retread one.

At that rate, the more than 40 million retreads sold in 1973 alone saved hundreds of millions of gallons of crude oil.

Babies Are Best Teachers

BRIARCLIFF MANOR, N.Y. (AP) — According to students at Briarcliff College, a private women's college here, infants between one month and 2 years of age are the best supplements to instruction and textbook reading in their developmental psychology courses.

Through working and playing with infants in the college's "Baby Laboratory" for two hours a week throughout the school year, each Briarcliff child psychology student is able to observe closely the nature of emotional and physical development of young children through the first two years of their lives.

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE — Here's how to work it:
A X Y D L B A A X R
is L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophes, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

Views On Television

NEW YORK (AP) — It's safe to assume that between now and next Tuesday's general elections the networks will emit all sorts of words about how thorough their election night coverage will be.

But little is written about local TV stations. So we recently called one, WWW-
TV in rural Bumfudgeon,
Fla., to ask News Director Everett Scrimshaw about his plans for covering election night.

"When is that?" he asked.
He was told. Whereupon he harrumphed and groused about the local newspaper, a weekly. "Wish it were a daily so we'd know when the issues changed," he said. Then he laughed.

"Just pullin' your leg. I know what night it is. And we at WWW plan to have the most complete returns in the history of the county the moment the poll closes.
Maybe before.

"We already have a correspondent in the field, although he'll have to get off the tractor and come on in the studio for makeup at about six o'clock.

"And that's not all. We got some new electronic gear — it's a pocket calculator that works when you clean the lint away — helping us with our voter profile analysis."

He said the analysis measures whether the voter was prone or upright in the booth.
He decided to use it, he added, after charges in the last election that Welby Tidball, a mayoral candidate, was buying uncommitted voters shots of redeye on election day.

Everett said he plans to have Mrs. Barry Foon on hand as a guest commentator, even though she's new to broadcast journalism.

"She's the secretary for the circuit court clerk and she's got a pretty good idea of whether the county will go Republican, Democrat, independent or just plumb crazy," he explained.

He said her commentary will focus on various "high interest" races, such as the ones for sheriff, circuit court judge, constable and county commission chairman.

"The last is the particularly high interest because there are rumors one of the candidates — most folks know who he is — has been foolin' around with a married woman," Everett observed.

"We plan to immediately project the winners," he continued. "If it's a close one,
Ted Brittle, our anchorman, may mumble a bit. But he's been doin' that ever since he got new bridgework a week ago."

The networks all plan to do live "remotes" from the headquarters of various candidates. Everett Scrimshaw says he'll go them one better. He'll do a live remote from the county's sole precinct.

"It was nice of the county to put the precinct in our studio," he said. "It'll get us a TV first — an interview with a voter right in the booth.
Should be a real hummer come Monday."

VOTE CAMPAIGN—Bob Parker, sponsorship chairman for the Circleville Sertoma Club, places a "vote" poster at a local business. The posters, which read "Time to take a stand... vote for the candidate of your choice", are part of the local Sertoma Club's Freedom program and are being placed throughout the city to remind local citizens to vote in next Tuesday's general election.

Brooks-Yates School Levy Renewal On Ballot Tuesday

Pickaway County voters will be faced with a tax renewal levy for Brooks-Yates School.

The ballot reads: "A renewal of a tax for the benefit of Brooks-Yates School for the purpose of maintenance, operation and support of the School and related programs for the retarded at a rate not exceeding .50 of one mill for each one dollar of valuation, which amounts to $.05 (five cents) for each one hundred dollars of valuation, for five years commencing 1975."

A 5-mill bond issue is before the people of the Teays Valley School District.

The ballot reads, "Shall bonds be issued by the Board of Education of the Teays Valley Local School District for the purpose of, constructing, adding to, rehabilitating, furnishing and equipping buildings for school purposes, improving school sites and constructing sewage treatment facilities at Scioto and Walnut Schools, in the sum of $3,650,000 and a levy of taxes be made outside of the ten mill limitation estimated by the county auditor to average 5.44 mills for each one dollar of valuation, which amounts 54.4 cents for each one hundred dollars of valuation, for a maximum period of 20 years to pay the principal and interest of such bonds."

Darby Township will vote on a proposed tax levy for benefit of fire protection.

The ballot reads: "An additional tax for the benefit of Darby Township for the purpose of providing protection against fire at a rate not exceeding .20 of one mill for each one dollar of valuation, which amounts to 2 cents for each one hundred dollars of valuation, for five years to be collected for the years 1974, 1975, 1976, 1977 and 1978."

Perry Township residents will decide on a renewal of a tax for the benefit of Perry Township for the purpose of or of constructing, reconstructing, resurfacing, improving or repairing the public roads at a rate not exceeding 2.5 mills for each one dollar of valuation, which amounts to 25 cents for each one hundred dollars of valuation for five years commencing 1975.

Residents in Scioto Township will decide in a local option election on four separate questions submitted concerning the sale of malt beverages.

The first question reads: "Shall the sale of malt beverages, wine and mixed beverages by the package, under permits which authorize sale for off-premise consumption only, be permitted in Scioto Township?"

Question two reads: "Shall the sale of malt beverages, wine and mixed beverages, under permits which authorize sale for on-premise consumption only, and under permits which authorize sale for both on premise and off-premise consumption, be permitted in Scioto Township?"

The third question reads, "Shall the sale of spirituous liquors by the glass be permitted in Scioto Township?"

Question four reads, "Shall state liquor stores for the sale of spirituous liquor by the package, for consumption off the premises where sold, be permitted in Scioto Township?"

A proposed tax levy in Scioto Township is for an additional tax for the benefit of Scioto Township for the purpose of protection against fire and to maintain fire apparatus, appliances and buildings at a rate not exceeding 2.5 mills for each one dollar valuation, which amounts to .25 cents for each one hundred dollars of valuation, for five years to be collected for the years, 1974, 1975, 1976, 1977 and 1978.

A sixth ballot for Scioto Township residents is a renewal of a tax for the benefit of Scioto Township for the purpose of protection against fire and to provide and maintain fire apparatus and appliances at a rate not exceeding 1.7 mills for each one dollar of valuation, which amounts to 17 cents for five years to be collected for the years 1974, 1975, 1976, 1977 and 1978.
